Hints

Those that have hosted and or attended many of these reunions, they strongly recommend that you book a hotel reservation now. If you decide not to attend, then you can always cancel at no cost. When Chris Anderson hosted the Phoenix 2007 reunion, some folks waited too long to book a room and were not able to get the discounted rate at the hotel and just as disconcerting some people were not able to get a room in the reunion hotel because the hotel was booked solid.
