News to Celebrate: A Special Note from the CNG Board of Directors

The CNG Board of Directors would like to announce that our school director, Dr. Eric Howard Habegger, has just been awarded the 2014 Excellence in Education Award for Latin America. The AdvancED Regional Director of Latin America presented this special award to Dr. Habegger on December 4th, 2014 at the Latin American Chief Administrators' Conference in Atlanta, Georgia.

AdvancED International introduced the Excellence in Education Award in 2009 to recognize individuals for their achievements in advancing high-quality education throughout Central America, the Caribbean, and South America. Nominees for this award are judged for their significant regional contributions based on the following criteria:

· Generating a common vision and mission for higher expectations among students, faculty, and the educational community;
· Demonstrating a record of significant and distinguished contributions to the education profession;
· Providing a lasting positive impact on student learning;
· Serving as a role model and mentor for students and/or future generations of educators; and · Demonstrating significant professional contributions to AdvancED.

As the world's largest accrediting organization within the United States and across the globe in 70 countries, AdvancED promotes excellence in education for over 32,000 schools with a total enrollment of more than 20 million students in educational institutions worldwide.

The CNG Board of Directors would like to extend its congratulations to Dr. Habegger, his entire leadership team, and the faculty and staff at CNG for their strong commitment to the pursuit of excellence in education for our students and school community. Their hard work over the years has advanced our vision to maximize individual student potential as well as improve our school programs and services. Congratulations to Dr. Habegger and to everyone on the CNG team for earning this prestigious award.
Mr. T.J. Merritt, MS Principal; Dr. Rob Leveillee, AdvancED Vice President for International Services; Dr. Eric H. Habegger, CNG Director; Dr. Dennis Klumpp, AdvancED Regional Director for Latin America; Ms. Astrid Amador, Colombian Program Director; Ms. Shaysann Kaun, HS Principal.
